Michael Taylor Named TransForce Regional Vice President of Business Development

SPRINGFIELD, Va. - TransForce Inc., the nation's leading provider of outsourced drivers to the trucking industry and DOT compliance solutions across the USA, has named industry veteran Michael Taylor to the newly created position of Regional Vice President of Business Development.

Taylor, who has spent close to 30 years in senior sales and operations roles with some of the nation's top trucking companies, is a former vice president of sales and operations at American Eagle Lines in Dallas, where he spent 12 years and was responsible for tremendous growth in the company's business.

"Mike's long-standing industry knowledge and deep relationships with key transportation executives across the country will be invaluable to our aggressive growth plans for 2010 and beyond," said TransForce President and CEO David Broome.

Taylor, who will report to Vice President of Sales Dave Scarangella, will be responsible for key account development in the West and Southwest portions of the country. He will be based in the company's regional offices in Dallas.

Since 1991, TransForce has grown from its original three offices to be the leading transportation staffing company in the nation. With a national network of branch offices and superior expertise in DOT compliance, TransForce has built its business on the cornerstone of being locally responsive and nationally resourceful in meeting customer needs, based upon a shared commitment to a culture of quality and compliance.
