TransForce Names Lanarde Lett Driver of the Year

TransForce, the nation's leader in transportation workforce solutions, recently named Lanarde Lett of Richmond, VA its 2006 Driver of the Year. Lett was chosen from over 1,000 TransForce drivers nationwide for his excellent safety record and reputation for superior customer satisfaction. He has logged over 90,000 miles for TransForce with absolutely no safety incidents.

"Customers specifically ask for Lett by name," says Dan Johnson, manager of TransForce's Richmond branch where Lett works. "He consistently makes deliveries on time and to the complete satisfaction of his customers."

Lett has experience moving a variety of commodities from flatbed loads of lumber to dry van loads of mattresses and refrigerated loads of perishable goods. "His experience and versatility make him invaluable to us," added Johnson.

TransForce is a nationwide provider of transportation workforce solutions. Through its growing network of thirty branches coast-to coast, TransForce provides carefully screened, experienced commercial truck drivers to private and for hire carriers as well as third party logistics firms.
