REGULATORY UPDATE

A brief summary of what you need to know....

COURT ISSUES 90-DAY STAY OF HOURS OF SERVICE RULES

The U.S. Court of Appeals has granted a 90-day stay of its previously issued ruling that the 11-hour driving and 34-hour restart rules be vacated and remanded to the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA). As a result, these two rules will remain in effect for now. During this period the FMCSA will issue an Interim Final Rule to address the concerns the Court raised earlier regarding the 11-hour driving rule and 34-hour restart provision. However, what action FMCSA will take (e.g., retaining the existing rules) is not yet clear.

More announcements will follow when FMCSA reveals its intentions to address the Court's initial ruling.
