John Kinney honored as TransForce Driver of the Year for 2010

John Kinney with VP of Business Development Tom Olsen

SPRINGFIELD, Va. - TransForce Inc., the nation's leading driver staffing firm, is pleased to honor our 2010 Driver of the Year, John Kinney. John has been a driver with TransForce's Detroit branch since March 2008. John is best known for taking 100% ownership of his route from Detroit to Ohio. Like many TransForce drivers, John was referred to TransForce by a fellow driver. Chris Favot, General Manager for the Detroit office, says: "John Kinney is one of those drivers you just love to have working for TransForce. His commitment to customer service, coupled with safety awareness and an outstanding work ethic, has made John our most valued driver. John does his job with ease and humility."

David Broome, President of TransForce, says "We are proud to have drivers with John's skill and conscientiousness. It is always difficult to select just one Driver of the Year because we have so many excellent drivers and this is further testament to John's performance." To be named the Driver of the Year, John was in competition with over 1,000 TransForce drivers across the nation. Congratulations John!
