TransForce, Inc. Expands into Southern Florida

ALEXANDRIA VA. – November 24, 2014 – TransForce is pleased to announce their expansion plans to open in Fort Lauderdale servicing southern Florida including markets from West Palm Beach to southern Miami. The expansion is led by John Creager, Vice President, Market Development, Gene Nelson, Regional Sales Manager and Shannon Bolan, Vice President who has direct responsibility of the TransForce Florida operations.

TransForce is the nation's leading specialty staffing firm devoted exclusively to the transportation industry. The Company provides qualified commercial truck drivers and compliance services to motor carriers across the nation. The Southern Florida expansion complements the existing Florida offices in Jacksonville and Tampa. TransForce has 45 branch offices in 23 states across the country with near future plans for Orlando, Florida later in 2014.

David Broome, TransForce President and CEO says of the office opening: "We are excited to expand our capacity to serve our customers in Florida. TransForce has aggressively pursued growth in the southeastern United States over the last two years. Opening southern Florida and later in the year Orlando, we are able to provide qualified drivers across the entire state." In December of 2012, TransForce acquired the operations of Superior Drivers and in January 2014 acquired Best Drivers. Both companies were strong regional providers based in the southeastern United States.

The new Southern Florida's office is located at 1451 West Cypress Creek Road, Suite 300, Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309
